[Special to The Times-Dispatch,] Raleigh, N. C., February 7.—People of Italeigh and the whole State were shocked beyond expression this mornshocked beyond expression this morning by the news of the sudden death of Judge James E. Shepherd, former Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of North Carolina, and a jurist of distinguished ability. He died in the Presbyterian Hospital, Baltimore, while undergoing an operation for bronchial trouble, precipitated by a small bone lodging in his throat. He had left Raleigh Saturday, accompanied by Dr. Kemp P. James Edward Shepherd was born near Norfolk, Va., July 26, 1817, being a son of Thomas S, Shepherd and his wife, Ann Eliza Brown. His greatgrandfather, Solomon Shepherd, was a Revolutionary patriot, and a member of the Constitution of Convention of Virginia that adopted the Constitution of the United States. He was left an orphan at ten years old, and was cared of the United States. He was left an orphan at ten years old, and was cared for until the outbreak of the Civil War by an elder brother, who was killed during the war. Although a lad under fourteen years, James Shepherd finally induced the Confederate author, ities to enlist him as a member of the Sixteenth Virginia Regiment. He proved too small to carry a musket, and was made a "marker."

A few months later he was retired from the service, learned telegraphy

A few months later he was retired from the service, learned telegraphy and toward the close of the war was assigned to duty as a telegraph operator at the headquarters of General J. C. Breckenridge, and at the close of the war was an operator at Wison. After the surrender he worked several years to get money to prosecute his studies, and then studied law at the University of North Carolina under Judge Battle. He was admitted to practice in 1888, practiced in Wilson a short while and then became law partner of Major Thomas Sparrow, of Washington, N. C., where he married Miss Elizabeth Brown. He became active in politics, serving as chairman of the county and congressional committees, was appointed chairman of the county and congressional committees, was appointed chairman of

FLOOD INDORSES PLAN.

Thinks Farmers are Wise to Build Lime-Crushing Plants.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Washington, D. C., February 7.—Several members of the Virginia delegation in Washington are very much interested in the plan of the Farmers Institute to build and operate lime-crushing plants, after the Illinois idea. Representative Flood, who has Just returned from the State, said to-day that he was heartly in favor of the suggestion, which will take the shape of a bill soon.

"The plan is one of the wisest ever suggested to a Virginia Legislature," said Mr. Flood. "There can be no genuine improvement without the use of lime on many of the farms of Eastern Virginia. Our farmers as a rule crushing able to pay from $2 to $1. a ence and the Episcapal clericus went.

Catarrh comes as a result of impurities and morbid matter in the circulation, and is a disease that only attacks mucous membrane. The entire inner portion of the body is lined with a delicate skin or covering oil soft, sensitive flesh. Thousands of tiny blood vessels are interlaced throughout this mucous surface, and it is through these that the inner membrane receives its nourishment and is kept in healthful condition. When, however, the blood becomes infected with catarrhal impurities the tissues become diseased and Catarrh gets a foothold in the system. The carly stages of Catarrh are characterized by such symptoms as a tight, stuffy feeling in the head, watery eyes, buzzing noises in the ears, with partial deafness and often difficult breathing and chronic hoarsoness. These are merely symptoms, and while sprays, inhalations and other local treatment may temporarily relieve them, Catarrh cannot be cured until the blood is purified of the exciting cause. S.S.S. cures Catarrh by cleansing the blood of all impure catarrhal matter. It goes down into the circulation and attacks the disease at its head, and removes every particle of the catarrhal impurity. Then the mucous linings are all supplied with fresh, pure blood, and allowed to heal, instead of being kept in a constant state of irritation by the catarrhal matter. Special book on Catarrh and any medical advice free.
